Online Business Rates Accounts

If you pay Business Rates in Trafford, did you know that you can set up an online account enabling you to view your account and update your details at any time?

Trafford Council provides businesses with the opportunity to establish an online account making it easier for clients to receive e-bills and access information online.

At a time when many businesses are not able to access their premises, an online account provides the opportunity to view correspondence sent to your business address.

To establish an account via the online portal, please click here.
