Retail Sector Update

Today, the Secretary State for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy, Alok Sharma MP has written to the retail sector to acknowledge the difficulties being encountered by operators in the sector at this time. The letter outlines the government's thanks to those businesses which have closed in response to government direction. He also acknowledges the contribution of those workers in areas such as online distribution which are providing a vital lifeline for the isolated at this time. To read the letter in full, please click here.

For retailers eligible for a Retail, Hospitality and Leisure grant, Trafford Council has commenced payment of those grants for which applications have been submitted. Applications for the Small Business Grants are also being processed as quickly as possible.
